Strange Accomplishment.

Among the customs of the aboriginal Australians a party of English explorers discovered that nasal flute playing was one. Two young natives with fillets about their hair were selected to furnish music for a feast. The English were surprised to see them hold their simple, forest-made flutes to their noses.

With their mouths closed they inhaled through one nostril and exhaled through the other in such a way that it was possible to produce a certain weird, wild music.—Chicago News.

Mrs. Thomas Hagerman, an old lady of Warren county, died Saturday afternoon. When a mere child Mrs. Hagerman had two fingers cut from her left hand. Nothing more came of it after they healed, and, barring the inconvenience incident to such misfortune, nothing was thought of it until some time last week. Then she was taken with a severe pain located in the severed members. The pain became excruciating and a physician was summoned. Nothing could be done to arrest the serious pain, but instead her arm became inflamed, turned black and blood poisoning set in, causing death.

John Rhea's Easy Victory.

The Democratic Congressional Convention for the Third district was held at Bowling Green Wednesday and Congressman John S. Rhea was renominated by acclamation. Mr. Rhea was not present, but sent a letter of acceptance.

Drowned While Bathing.

Owensboro, Ky., June 15.—Joseph Jones aged 14 years, was drowned in the Ohio river near Owensboro today while bathing. The body was not recovered.

The wings of birds are not only to aid locomotion in the air; but also on the ground and water. One bird even has claws in the "elbows" of its wings to aid in climbing.
